

COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT FOR FALL SEMESTER, 2021

HIST 115: WORLD HISTORY SINCE 1500

An Introduction to World Civilizations from the Sixteenth to the Twenty First Century

Caption: Medalists in the long jump competition pose from atop the podium at the Berlin Olympics on Saturday, 8 August 1936. The bronze medalist, Japan's Naoto Tajima, is on the left; the silver medalist, Germany's Luz Long, is on the right; and the gold medalist, the United States' Jesse Owens is in the middle. In just five years' time, the nations of these competitors would be at war.

COURSE DETAILS

FS, taped lectures with live discussion on Wed. 12:30 - 1:45 PM

There are no pre-requisites, but enrollment is limited. Register today to reserve a spot. If you have questions or would like to see the syllabus, please contact the instructor, Devin Leigh, at dtleigh@ucdavis.edu.