

COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT FOR FALL QUARTER, 2021

HIS 15B: AFRICA TODAY

An Introduction to African History
from 1900 to the Present Day

Caption: "Miss Independence," Rosemary Anieze, strolls down the streets of Lagos, Nigeria, on Wednesday, 28 September 1960, a few days before Nigeria declares independence from Great Britain. Taken from the article: "Reflections on 1960, the Year of Africa," New York Times, 9 February 2020.

COURSE DETAILS

FQ, Tuesdays and Thursdays, 1:40 - 3:00 PM, Hoagland Hall 168

There are no pre-requisites, but enrollment is limited. Register today to reserve a spot. If you have questions or would like to see the syllabus, please contact the instructor, Devin Leigh, at dtleigh@ucdavis.edu.